

Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar

1. Circle the correct spellings to complete the sentences below.

Ash and Arrow ran past various/varios/varyous trees before getting lost; the way home was not at all obveous/obvyous/obvious. They were in a dangereous/dangerious/dangerous situation.

2. Circle the correct homophones to complete the sentences below.

Ash could hear/here the rumble of thunder. The weather/whether was getting worse and the rain/rein/reign began to poor/pour down.

3. Rewrite the sentence below. Change the underlined words to pronouns.

Ash and Ash's dog ran as fast as they could. Ash and Ash's dog felt terrified when a thunderstorm started.

4. Complete the sentence below by adding a fronted adverbial.

_____, he changed course, running even faster than before.

5. For each sentence below, circle the correct form of the verb so that it is grammatically correct.

Ash has ran/run a long distance.

He has saw/seen a boar and has threw/thrown a hazelnut onto the ground.

The hazelnut hasn't sank/sink/sunk into the mud.