

Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar

1. Choose the correct spellings to complete the sentences below.

Safia knew that her plan was outrageous/outragous. If she got caught she would be in sereous/serious trouble. Mr Bradby would not think it was humorous/humourous.

2. Underline the preposition in each sentence below.

I was standing on a box.

I was hiding behind the lectern.

The whole school filed into the hall.

3. Add one apostrophe to each sentence below.

Today's assembly was going to be different.

The pupils' head teacher sounded a bit strange during assembly.

Rob dangled Mr Bradby's office key in his hand.

4. Rewrite the sentence below so that it is in the present perfect form.

Safia spoke to the whole school.

5. Expand the following noun phrase by adding adjectives and a preposition phrase.

the kids