

Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar

1. Choose the correct spellings to complete the sentences below.

Safia made a decision/decition. She wanted to give Dave Clash some negative attension/attention. The children felt entertained; it was funnier than something you'd see on the television/televistion.

2. Rewrite the sentence so that it is in Standard English.

I done it; I made Dave Clash look foolish.

3. Extend the sentence below by adding a conjunction and another clause.

It was a beautiful moment _____

4. Tick the option which shows how the underlined words in the sentence below are used.

A minute or so later, Rob gave me the all-clear.

as a main clause

as a noun phrase

as a subordinate clause

as a fronted adverbial

Tick one.

5. Which of the following sentences is correctly punctuated?

Tick one.

Trust me I winked I've got it all worked out.

"Trust me I winked I've got it all worked out."

"Trust me," I winked, "I've got it all worked out."

Trust me! I winked "I've got it all worked out."
