

Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar

1. Choose the correct spellings to complete the sentences below.

Everyone felt confused. They thought that Mr Bradby had given permission/permition for pupils to do as they pleased. Mr Bradby was angry and without hesitation/hesistacian he began to restore order across the school. There was a lot of tension/tention in the air.

2. Complete the sentence below by adding a fronted adverbial.

_____, Mr Bradby was released from his office.

3. Place a tick in each row to complete the table below.

| Sentence   | Simple Past | Present Perfect |
|--|-------------|-----------------|
| Mr Bradby has been locked in his office for a long time.     |             |                 |
| He found the school in complete chaos.                       |             |                 |
| I have not done an assembly today!                           |             |                 |
| It took over an hour for the teachers to calm everyone down. |             |                 |

4. Underline the two adverbs in the sentences below.

Rob and Safia talked quietly about their little scam, knowing they had planned it well.

5. Rewrite the sentences below so that they are in Standard English.

We was so pleased with our scam. We done ourselves proud.