

Open-Ended Questions

1. What are the names of the twins in Class Five?
2. Mrs Cruikshank is a strict teacher. Give two examples from Chapter 2 that support this statement.
3. Why was Mrs Cruikshank disappointed when she found no mud on William's shoes?
4. The broad lines of a million forced frowns were engraved across her forehead.
What does this phrase tell you about Mrs Cruikshank's personality?
5. "Really? Is that true, child? You talked to this missing worm. Where is he now?"
At the end of the chapter, William was finding it difficult to speak. If you were William, how would you answer Mrs Cruikshank's question?