

Story Sequencing Question

Put these events in the order in which they happened in the story, numbering them from 1 to 5. The first one has been done for you.

Mrs Cruikshank questioned William.

1

The class did their maths work in silence

William found James and began to ask him why he had disappeared.

The whole class were threatened with detention.

William ate his lunch by himself.