

Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar

1. Choose the correct spellings to complete the sentences below.

Ben realised that he wasn't looking at a reflecssion/reflecian/reflection of himself because the other Ben was standing up instead of crouching down.

Nell was delighted that her invenssion/invencian/invention had actually worked.

Considering that Nell hadn't given Ben permission/permician/permition to touch her machine, she was very calm.

2. Something very exciting has happened. Ben, you have just swapped places with your dog over there.

Which tense has been used in the sentences above?

	Tick one.
Past Perfect	<input type="checkbox"/>
Past Progressive	<input type="checkbox"/>
Simple Past	<input type="checkbox"/>
Present Perfect	<input type="checkbox"/>

3. Underline the determiner in each sentence below.

There was a huge bang, then silence.

He saw the woman staring down at him.

‘I must have banged my head,’ he thought in a panic.

4. Rewrite the sentences below so that they are written in Standard English.

Ben weren't crouching down on his hands and feet. He were standing.

5. Complete the sentence below so that it is punctuated correctly.

Change us back growled Ben